

EMPLOYMENT DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINT

Leena Patel v. Cedar Bridge Security Inc.
Case No. RV-CV-2026-00689. Filed March 3, 2026.

Leena Patel worked for Cedar Bridge Security as a scheduling coordinator on the Riverton school account, contract CTR-2025-077. She alleges the company terminated her after she complained that supervisors assigned fewer shifts to guards who requested religious accommodations.

Patel says she raised the issue with operations director Grant Mercer on January 7 and was dismissed on January 20 for alleged mishandling of attendance records.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

Count I alleges religious discrimination under the Riverton Human Rights Act. Count II alleges retaliation. Count III alleges failure to preserve scheduling records after receiving notice of an administrative complaint.

Patel seeks back pay, lost benefits, compensatory damages, punitive damages, and an order requiring Cedar Bridge to preserve shift assignments, supervisor messages, and access logs. No specific dollar amount is stated.

The complaint references staffing reports submitted to the School District but does not name the district as a defendant. Counsel: Alice Mendez, Workers Justice Center.
